The first task order is Program Management and Consulting Services. This task order is "Program Management and Consulting Services". This task order will serve as a catch all the things that can't be put into a tidy project. Task order two is "Conceptual Plan for Community Sports Fields". Task order three is "The Texas Parks and Wildlife Grant Management" task. Task order four is the "Fritz Overmatch Improvement" task order which includes replacement of the current restroom and installation of swing sets. Task order five is Hutto Lake Park – Phase 1 improvements which includes improvements to both the parking lot, the park, and lake edge. Task order six is Hutto Community Park – Phase 1 General Improvement. This includes play structures and a full size basketball court for this park. Task order 7 is the "Parks, Recreation, & Trails Master Plan".

Project Manager also presented a hypothetical layout to the Parks Board of how they would fit ten full size baseball/softball fields, a recreation center, and four soccer/football fields. The design was purely conceptual. The design consisted of concession stands, air conditioned restrooms, and play structures around the fields.

Paul Howard, the manager for the Master Plan, also presented the plan for the Master Plan to the Parks Board. The first process which is to engage with the public to determine what is wanted in the parks system will take five to six months. The Master Plan will be a working document that works to guide staff and elected officials as they progress on parks projects.

5C. Update on Creekside Park flood damage and new fencing.

Director Shane Mize informed the board that the new fence is up and the new infield soil is set.
